II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation and the amount at stake is more than $75,000 is a diversity of citizenship case. In a diversity of citizenship case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

III. Statement of Claim

Write a short and plain statement of the claim. Do not make legal arguments. State as briefly as possible the facts showing that each plaintiff is entitled to the injunction or other relief sought. The defendants violated Consumers bill of rights. The right to be heard, that lead Robert boyce retaliating and shutting off service. Not only did the retaliation stop there. I filed a petition. Not once but twice. The first petition was given to the defendant Robert boyce. Then the Second petition was sent certified. The next day the water company took out the meter. And never treated anything back about the petition. The bill have been getting paid with bonds. They were not being credited to the account for a whole year and a half. We disputed the account. That went ignored. I later sent in a payment in full of the disputed amount. It was cashed but the account was not credited. They ~~failed~~ to transfer the property into trust was unwilling.

IV. Irreparable Injury

Explain why monetary damages at a later time would not adequately compensate you for the injuries you sustained, are sustaining, or will sustain as a result of the events described above, or why such compensation could not be measured.

We were denied our Consumer bill of rights. They made us feel because they were in a higher position. They can do anything want without consequences. Because the higher City members had their back. The embarrassment when they kept sending someone out every other day to see if we used water. The city taking away our free speech and due process

V. Relief

State briefly and precisely what damages or other relief the plaintiff asks the court to order. Do not make legal arguments. Include any basis for claiming that the wrongs alleged are continuing at the present time. Include the amounts of any actual damages claimed for the acts alleged and the basis for these amounts. Include any punitive or exemplary damages claimed, the amounts, and the reasons you claim you are entitled to actual or punitive money damages.

The water back on. The account to a $0 balance
Stop retaliating and hanging up because of the conversation being had
The money spent on water $6000.
The emotional damage caused to the residents for the defendant's neglect. $20,000.
